

NACHO POP

DANCE WORKSHOP

NACHO POP joins us HERE at COASTQUEST CHAMPIONSHIPS NEXT FRIDAY AFTERNOON
10TH JULY

at revised workshop times in place of L.A. Choreographer JANET LANGER who has postponed her Australian Tour.

Nacho Pop is indisputably one of the top poppers in Australia and is absolutely the most well-known hip hop dancer. His passion and fire during a performance are unmatched, and he upholds his international reputation in every performance.

Growing up in New York City, Nacho began dancing as a child, inspired by the local hip-hop culture and the local street corner breakers.

Nacho moved to Australia nine years ago and quickly established himself as one of Australia's leading hip hop performers. He has danced in numerous TV ads [Evian, McDonalds, Coca-Cola, Sprite, Channel [V], MTV, Vodafone] and music video clips.

Nacho has won battles against some of Australia's and Asia's best poppers / hip hop dancers and produces shows with the world famous 'Seven Dollar Crew'. Nate is currently a member of Australia and New Zealand's leading funkstyle crew – Star Connection.

Most Recently Nacho Pop has become a household name with his role on 'So You Think You Can Dance' Australia. He choreographed numerous routines, hosted backstage interviews, and became the surprise hit personality on the show. He is now sought after every single week for workshops and dancing gigs.
